Driving Directions:

This place is in the middle of nowhere so be prepared and follow directions carefully. We are approximately 20 miles west of Fredericksburg, VA. The main access is I 95 so if you need directions from another point contact me.

From points south (Richmond, NC) take I 95 North 50 miles past Richmond to the Fredericksburg, VA area. Take Exit 130 B, US Rt 3 West, direction Culpeper. Some of the cheapest gas prices in the state are on the right (Wawa) along this stretch after you leave the immediate vicinity of the interstate so fill up. Drive 15.5 miles to the light at the intersection of US Rt 3 and US Rt 20. When you hit this intersection you are getting close. Continue on US Rt 3 West approximately 3.4 miles to a left hand turn onto State Rt 601, Flat Run Rd. Before hitting Flat Run Rd you will pass a small shopping center on your right (Lake of the Woods), this is a good place to get groceries (Food Lion), fast food (Burger King, Dominos Pizza, Subway) etc. After turning left onto Flat Run Rd, drive .6 miles to Rt 603, Indiantown Rd and turn right. Drive 1.2 miles to my red iron gate on left and turn in. If you miss the gate you will very shortly hit a T intersection with Gov. Almond Rd so turn around and come back.

From points north, (Washington, Baltimore) take I 95 south 50 miles past Washington to the Fredericksburg, VA area. Take Exit 130 B, US Rt 3 west towards Culpeper. Pick up directions above at this point.

My land is 42 acres of rolling hills with pasture, oak and cedar woods. About 15 acres are devoted to the battlesite with two bridges, one road, one bunker and numerous foxholes. The Battle of the Wilderness was fought about a mile from my property. Three other major Civil War battlefields are only minutes away so if you have any extra time on Sunday take advantage of the location and do some sight seeing.

When you arrive, please park in the designated area near the gate. The Allied camp is located directly ahead near the big green tent. The German camp is located in the woods and can only be accessed by vehicles with off road capabilities. Only period vehicles can remain in the camps.
